

INTRODUCTION

Hello, my name is

I am your Guardian and I want to hear all about you.

What does the Guardian Ad Litem do?

A Guardian ad Litem is a social worker who visits children and young people.

A Judge has asked me to visit. The Judge wants to know all about you, who you live with, where you go to school and what you like.

What does the Solicitor do?

Your Solicitor's name is

A Solicitor works with the Guardian and speaks for you to a Judge.

What does the Judge want to know?

Judges work in Family Courts. The Judge has been asked to decide what is best for you.

After I have met you I will tell the Judge about your wishes and feelings and your views. I will also tell the Judge what I think is best.

The Judge will decide what is best for you after hearing what you have said and hearing what other people in your life say.

Let us turn the page and look at the questions together.
